

Required Summer Reading 2017

Holy Names Academy has a summer reading requirement for all English courses. Students are expected to complete the reading for their respective grade levels before the beginning of classes on August 28. English teachers have chosen one required title for each grade so that students start school with a recent literary experience in common. These titles should be available for use from a public library, or for purchase from a local or online bookstore.

9th Grade:

The Red Scarf Girl: A Memoir of the Cultural Revolution
by Ji-li Jiang

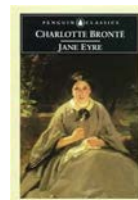

10th Grade:

The Complete Persepolis
by Marjane Satrapi

11th Grade

Jane Eyre
by Charlotte Bronte

12th Grade:

The Scarlet Letter
by Nathaniel Hawthorne

