

- No parking for HNA
- If a legal parking spot, OK to park for HNA
- After-school 15-minute wait zone only

SAMPLE ONLY. Side-of-street restrictions on back apply to ALL streets in HNA neighborhood. Last updated: Sept 2014.

HOLY NAMES ACADEMY PARKING GUIDELINES

(Last updated Sept. 2014)

HNA's two parking lots (off 22nd Ave.) are restricted to faculty, staff, parents, and visitors.

STREET PARKING:

Street parking for all HNA schooldays and events—at any hour, whether by students, parents, or faculty/staff—is restricted to:

- Any legal parking spot on E. Aloha Street.
- The NORTH side only of other streets running east/west (Roy, Prospect, Mercer, etc.), but only in a legal space. You may park on either side of the blocks immediately adjacent to the HNA building, as noted below.
- The WEST SIDE ONLY of streets running north/south (20th, 21st, 22nd, etc.). You may park on either side of the blocks immediately adjacent to the HNA building, as noted below.
- Both sides of the streets around the immediate four sides of the HNA building—but only in a legal space. The entire west side of 22nd Avenue in the block adjacent to the school building is a no-parking zone, but can be used for waiting during the 15-minute after-school pickup.

Observe city parking regulations and common courtesy.

In particular, DO NOT:

- Park within 5 feet of a driveway, alley or lowered curb area.
- Park within 3 feet of another vehicle.
- Park in a space marked for the disabled unless the driver has a placard or license plate for the disabled.